Chapter One

Far Too Young to be a Hero

Death was coming. It would fall from the skies like a hail of deadly meteors – not dropped by some malevolent force from outer space, but spawned from the iron bellies of Hitler's deadly

Luftwaffe bombers.

Sirens wailed their nightly warning, conducting a drumbeat of frightened feet across the pavements of London's East End. Streams of panicked citizens spewed through the narrow streets; children screamed their resistance as mothers and fathers hailed them through jostling crowds. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes, but few people paid any attention. They were too fearful of the fire and fury that was roaring over the English Channel towards them. Terror had already turned pretty, young faces into ugly balls of fear, and the eyes of thousands turned constantly upwards, pulled wide and white by dread.
